PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1894.

EXTRA.

ADMITS HE IS A PERJURER.

Lewis, by False Swearing, Secured a License for the Maison Tortoni.

WAS INDORSED BY ANDREWS.

The Street-Cleaning Commissioner Asks Lexow to Hear His Defense.

WITNESS RYAN IS OBDURATE.

get a beiter idea of American institutions.

He told an "Evening World" reporter that he thought New York a fine city and admired its big buildings. Senator Cantor arrived just before the Committee was called to order at 11.20.

Mr. Burns was introduced to the Senators by Mr. Gompers. They greeted him very cordially and invited him to a seat upon the bench, which he accepted.
Mr. Jerome, who has been so much engaged with the affairs of the LXX that he could not attend the hearings before election, was in his old place again.

The conference of Mr. Goff with Chairman Lexow lasted until nearly noon.
Many guesses were hazarded as to the cause of the delay, and Mr. Goff finally said he was waiting for an important witness whom he had expected to be present.

Detective Kearney and another one of present.

Detective Kearney and another one of the Committee's subpoena-servers were hurriedly sent out of the court-room.

Then Chairman Lexow rapped for order and announced that he had received a letter from Street-Cleaning Commissioner W. S. Andrews requesting a copy of the testimony given at the last sessions regarding his actions while in the Excise Board. He had referred this letter to Mr. Goff.

Mr. Goff stated that he had been in communication with Commissioner Andrews and had informed him that while he did not think it proper to furnish him with a copy of the testimony taken, he had offered to give him the first opportunity this morning to present the vindication he desired.

"I understand that Commissioner Andrews is before the Board of Estimate and Apportionment this morning and cannot attend, so I have extended the invitation till to-morrow."

Answered for Evelyn Bell.

Father Ducey Defies the Archbishop and Attends the Session—John

Burns a Listener.

Burns a Listener.

Renewed interest was attached to the reopening of the Lexow Committee's session to-day, by the fact that Father Ducey was among the auditors.

Answered for Evelyn Bell.

Mr. Goff then said he proposed to take up some unfinished business and cases that be not committee. He asked that the name of Evelyn Bell be called. A woman in the crowd sfood up.

"That's not Evelyn Bell.

The call was repeated, but no response was given, and at Mr. Goff's request the counsel was instructed to bring the case of the Bell woman to the attention of the Grand Jury.

"She has been summoned several

John Burns.

Corrigan commanding His presence to-day is, therefore, a de

Senator Connor First. The first member to arrive was Sens tor O'Connor, who came in about 10.30, and was shortly followed by Chairman Lexow, who stepped in briskly and looked as if he was prepared for an in-

"We shall certainly sit as many days as we can get together during the month and so far as I know, the investigation will continue on the lines which have aiready been taken up," said he.

"I do not know exactly what plans Mr.

"I do not know exactly what plans Mr. Goff has for our opening hearing, but I think more testimony will be received on the question of police protection to discreterly houses."

A number of flashily dressed women had come in mean time, and had been escorted to seats in the witnesses corner by Sergeant-at-Arms Schram, which gave ground for the Chairman's supposition. A large number of policemen in uniform were also on hand, but no prominent officials of the Department had appeared. Chairman Lexow further stated that the committee would undoubtedly inquire into the methods and practices of the police courts of the city before long, but no special programme had been arranged for this branch of the inquiry. "We shall take up the matter whenever a point of interest is suggested, as we have in the past, and dovetail the Police Court end of the investigation into the main inquiry to save time."

Refuses to Discust Matters.

"I'll have to refer you all," he said, ith a smile, "to the paince up in tadison avenue for any information in those points. I have nothing to say, in here, and I shall come here as feen as my inclination leads me to I'm here, and I shall come here as often as my inclination leads me to do so."

It was il o'clock when Mr. Goff arrived. Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson having been added to the number of the Committee present. The chief counsel and his assistant, Mr. Moss, who secompanied him, immediately went into a frivate conference with senators Lexow and O'Connor.

Meanwhile the officers at the entrance of the court-room had opened the way for the crowd in the corridor, and every bench beyond the railing was packed with interested spectators.

Father Ducey shook hands very condaily with all the Behators before he took his seat, and he was soon in earnest conversation with Uncle Lawson N. Puller.

said Mr. Goff, "but has failed to | since did so. supplying her A. She came did so.

Q. Did you to before the Excise Board? A.

Q. Did you to before the Excise Board? A.

Q. Did you man a paper? A. V.

ago.
Q. But the liceuse is in your name to-day?
A. I don't know. I don't remember what was done by the Board. I didn't understand it at the time.

the time.

Lewis admitted that he had gone down every year to the Excise Board to take out a renewal of the license, though he didn't own the place.

Q.—You always swore you owned the place? A.—I dun't know.

Q. But the records show you did? A. I only signed the paper they gave me.

Q. Who gave you the money, $500, that you raid each year? A. Miss Chaude's manager, Mr. Lambert.

Lambert

3. Didn't you know you were committing per-jury when you swees you owned the Malson Torton!? A. I didn't know it. I don't know much about licenses. I thought it was all right.

Not Familiar with Perjury.

police courts of the city before long, but no special programme had been erranged for this branch of the inquiry.

"We shall take up the matter whenever a point of interest is suggested, as we have in the past, and dovetail the Police Court end of the investigation into the main inquiry to save time."

Father Ducey Arrives.

When Father Thomas Ducey arrived fo went to his usual place.

"Tve saved your chair for you, sir," said Bergeant-at-Arms Schram, as he led the priest around to his customary seat in front of the bench.

"Thank you; you did well," returned Father Ducey suavely. "I shall always be on hand."

Several newspaper men tried to get Father Ducey to say something about his relations with the Archbishop and his reported appeal to Mgr. Satolli, but he refused to talk.

Refuses to Discuss Matters.

Depriousness.

Q. Who told yes to sign the paper? A. I don't remember maw. It was some of Muschauses friends. They fold me it was only a matter of form, and that I would not have anything more to do with the liceuss.

Mr. Goff read the affidavit signed by Lewis, in which he swore he had purchased the right, title and interest in the Maison Tortoni and its business for the contraction.

Q Is that true? A. No. sir; I never paid ent.
Q You also swear Mine. Chaude gave you a bill of sale of the property on Dec. 15, 1837. Was that pure? A. No. I nover had any bill of sale or my interest in the house whatever. I simply supplied her with meat.

Signed Without Reading.

Signed Without Reading.

Lewis denied every statement aworn to y him in the affidavit, and said it was all also and untrue. Yet his signature was stached. He expiained this by saying that he had never read the paper, and if not know its contents. It was simily given to him and he signed it.

An fixcise inspector had subsequently visited him, but the witness could not remember that he told him he owned the misson Tortoni. The affidavit of the inspector was read by Mr. Goff, in which he awore that Lewis had so informed him.

A. When did you see Mms. Chaude last? A last Tuesday. I still shpply her with meat.

This was the license that Mrs. Tom-Binson, wife of the ex-Chief Clerk of the Excise Board swore that Mme. Chaude had given her $500 to secure, and that she and her husband had turned over the money to Commissioner Andrews. Previous to this Mme. Chaude's license had been revoked.

Lewis said he never saw a bar at the Maison Torton. His affidavit stated that the hotel had twenty-nine rooms, had been licensed for ten years, and that Mme. Chaude had retired. Lewis said he never knew anything about the rooms or how long the place had been licensed. Certainly Mme. Chaude had not retired, but had been running the house ever since just as she had before she got the witness to get out her license for her.

Indorsed by Andrews.

Mr. Goff read Commissioner Andrews's indorsement approving of the application of Lewis for the Malson Tortoni license, in which be said that Lewis was a high-ly respectable merchant, and had the personal indorsement of Police Justice Personal incorporation White? A. No: I nev White. Q. Do rou know Justice White? A. No: I nev

Tore Up the Subpoens.

The next witness called was Michael Ryan, a scared-looking man, with a pointed gray beard.

"Why did you disobey the subpoena of this Committee last Summer?" asked Mr. Goff.

"I never did." protested the witness.
"I was never served. A man came to my horse one morning and threw a paper in the door. I was in my night shirt.

rime?"
"No, sir; I didn't."
Ryan said he had been in the city ever

Did Not Try to Get Away.

Q. You were caught visiting the Sheriff's office?
A. One of your men met me there. I had an ap-pointment to meet a man.
Q. Who did you some to the court-house to see? Ryan hesitated a long time, and finally said he came to see Daniel Finn, his counsel, who was also a deputy sheriff.
Q. How long have you been in the green-goods business? A. I don't know what you mean. goods business? A. I don't some mean.

Q. Do you mean to say you are not in the green-goods business? A. I decline to answer.

Q. On the ground that it would tend to degrads and diagrace you? A. Yes, sir.

Afraid of Disgrace.

Mr. Ryan refused to tell what he had employed Finn to do for him, saying that it might disgrace and incriminate him in the eyes of his fellow-men. He finally said he had retained Finn in some frivolous cases. One was a case of a charge of drunkenness.

Q. Was the charge of drunkenness made against you? A. I decline to answer.

Q. Why? A. On the same grounds. It might tend to disgrace me.

Mr. Finn had no office, he said, but performed all his services for the witness "free gratis," as he said.

Q. You have a great regard for your reputation? A. Certainly.

Q. What is you business? A. I'm a speculator.

Q. What did you speculate in most? A.

lator.

Q. What did you speculate in most? A. Horses. I hought a horse method Gene down Q. Wast did you speculate in most? A. forses. I bought a horse seaned Gene down it the Brooklyn track.

Q. Did you pay for sit with a check? A. No: paid in cash.
Q. You found it useful in your business? A. fee, in the kerse business.
Q. You found it useful in your business? A. fee, in the kerse business did you own? A. Seven, eith Patrick Hadlick, Q. That is Big Faisey Hadlick, the gambier? He is sometimes called Paisey and we used a keep a boar at the ranes.
Q. You've been a gambier all your life? A. fo. I used to be in the liquor business.
Q. Have you ever heen in State prion? A. I seeline to answer.
Q. Have you ever been in the pantientiary?

Mr. Ryan yawned at this point.

What alous Wethersheld and Moyamenaing?
I woult answer.
2 Wees you ever at Crow Hill, or dnake Hill,
Tair Auburn, the awestest village of the plain?
I decline to answer.
3 How old were you when you first visited any these finitiations? A. I won't answer such of these institutions? A. I won's answer such questions.

Q. You know that genial old man, Mr. Brock-way, don't you? A. I decline to answer, because it would tend to disgrace me.

Q. But you have explained those crimes, now. How can B disgrace you any more to tell about them? A. I won't answer.

Q. You said you had been engaged in only three cocupations. Wan't there another? A. No. gir.

Q. You said something about "et retera." What did you include in that? A. All other things that I did.

Evades the Green Goods Query. Q. Now. Mr. Hyen, you know you were engaged in the green-goods business as well as I do; why don't you say so? A. I refuse to answer.

G. Didn't you was a night hank rail when you ware it leasiness with Dig Patser? A. I decline (Continued on Second Pages fested by the coincident request of the Chinese and Japanese Governments, that the agents of the United States should, within proper limits, afford protection to the subjects of the other during the suspension of diplomatic relations due to a state of war. This delicate office was accepted, and a misapprehension which gave rise to the belief that in affording this kindly unofficial protection our agents would exercise the same authority which the withdrawn agents of the beiligerents had exercised, was promptly corrected. Although the war

* (Continued on Third Page.)

CLEVELAND TO CONGRESS.

The President's Annual Message Presented to the House and Senate.

CURRENCY REFORM

The Differential Tax on Refined Sugar Should Be Repealed.

CHANGES IN BANKING LAWS.

More Liberal Legislation for Banks Would Solve the Currency Question.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3,-Upon the as embling of Congress the President's In addition to his own suggestions to The assemolage within the nation's leg duty of making laws for the benefit of generous and free people impressively suggests the exacting obligation and in-exorable responsibility involved in their tark. At the threshold of such labor now to be undertaken by the Congress of the United States, and in the discharge of an executive duty enjoined by the Constitution, I submit this communi cation, containing a brief statement of he condition of our National affairs. and recommending such legislation as seems to me necessary and expedient.

The history of our recent dealings with other nations, and our peaceful relations with them at this time, additionally demonstrate the advantage of consistently adhering to a firm but just foreign po ley, free from envious or ambitious National schemes and characterized by entire honesty and sincerity.

During the past year, pursuant law of Congress, commissioners were appointed to the Antwerp Industrial Exposition. Though the participation of American exhibitors fell far short of completely illustrating our National inenuity and industrial achievements, yes t was quite creditable in view of the brief time allowed for preparation.

I have endeavored to impress upor

the Belgian Government the needless. restrictions upon the importation of cer-tain of our food products, and have strongly urged that the rigid supervision and inspection under our laws are amply sufficient to prevent the exportation from this country of diseased cattle and

A serious tension of relations having Brazil and Portugal, by reason of the escape of the insurgent Admiral da Gama and his followers, the friendly now in force, that Government subsequently notified us of its intention to terminate such arrangement on the first day of January, 1896, in the exercise of the right reserved in the agreement between the two countries. I invite attention to the correspondence between the Secretary of State and the Brazilian Minister on this subject. The Commission organized under the convention which we had entered into with Chile for the settlement of the oustanding claims of each Government against the other, adjourned at the end of the period stipulated for its continuance, leaving undetermined a number of American cases which had been duly presented. These claims are not barred and negotiations are in progress for their submission to a new tribunal.

TREATY WITH CHINA. On the 17th of March last a new

of emigration was signed at Washingsanction of the Senate. Ratification on the part of China and formal exchange are awaited to give effect to this mutually beneficial convention.

A gratifying recognition of the uniform impartiality of this country towards all foreign States was manipromptly corrected. Although the war between China and Japan endangers no policy of the United States. It deserves our gravest consideration, by reason of its disturbance of our growing commercial interests in the two countries and the increased dangers which may result to our citisens domiciled or sojourning in the interior of China.

Acting under a stipulation in our treaty with Cores (the first concluded with a Western power) I fell constrained expected, but I'm sure this will fetch you around all right.

WILL RACE NEXT SEASON. IMP. BONES A WINNER, A FIRE IN FIFTH

DR. CLEVELAND --- The other medicine didn't work as well as Owners to Be Fulfilled.

The Board of Governors of the Cone their rooms at the Cumberland. After an hour's consultation, the following statement was issued for publication:

The Coney Island Jockey Club, at a meeting of its Board of Governors foeday, decides that it would incur the losses required to fulfil its obligations to horse-awners and breeders, if left in a position to do so after this Whiter's legislation, by running off its fixed events, and that all entries for the Futurity of 1897 and other great stakes would only be received under such conditions.

cides at a Meeting To-Day.

There were present at the meeting Col. Lawrence Kip, J. G. Bradford, Cor nelius Fellowes, John M. Bowers Charles H. Kerner, Thomas Hitchcock William H. Tailer, John G. Hecksher Herbert V. Pell, J. H. Alexander, A Newbold Morris, Senator H. Peabody field, F. Guy Griswold and Robert Goelet.
This approuncement of the Coney Isl

Gama and his followers, the friendly offices of our representatives to those countries were exerted for the protection of the subjects of either with the territory of the other.

Although the Government of Brazil was duly notified that the commercial arrangement existing between the United States and that country, based on the third section of the Tariff act of 1890, was abrogated on Aug. 28, 1894, by the taking effect of the Tariff iaw now in force, that Government subsequently notified us of its intention to and his supposed intention is to have the recent general election set aside as illegal and then vitiate the legality of the Legislature now sitting and which will elect Tillman, his successor.

Attorney-General Buchanan for the State took the position that Senator Butler having heretofore acceded to the constitutionality of the law and been a beneficiary under it by his repeated election to the Senate was barred from attacking it, also that he could not bring a case of a purely abstract nature. Argument is not yet completed.

INGERSOLL FOR LABOR.

Appears for Strike Leaders Against a Leading Republican Politician.
LYNN, Mass, Dec. 3.—This morning
Francis W. Breed, at whose shoe factory a strike has been in progress for the past three weeks, had an injunction served on six of the labor leaders of this city to prevent them from interof this city to prevent them from inter-fering with his employees.

The hearing will be held in Salem late this afternoon, when Col. Robert Inger-soll will appear for the labor leaders.

The strike is practically over, as this morning lifteen cutters and twenty-six lastors returned to work.

New Electric Light Company. ALBANY, Dec. 2.- The Madison Square Light Company, of New York was incorporated this morning. This is a reorganization of the Thomson-Rousson Blootte's Light Companys against whom a judgement for $600,000 in favor of the Holland Trust Company, as order Get, a last,

That Million-Dollar Park Fund. At a specting of the Board of Estimate and Ap-

Coney Island Jookey Club So De- Takes the First Race at Alexander The Old Manhattan Club Building Island from Free Press. Burning This Afternoon.

Bookmaker Fred Miller's Case to Come Up Wednesday.

Judges Investigating the Running of Frank Weir's Fagin.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, ALEXANDER ISL AND, Dec. 3.—Clear weather attracted a large crowd to the Alexander Island to-day and eleven bookmakers were kept busy handling the money.
As is the custom at this track the obtainable against supposedly good things as well as public favorites. The case of Fred Miller, arrested for Saturday, will come up for a hearing This is the first move in the attempt to The judges began an investigation this whenever he started. A decision of not given. He was, however, requested to withdraw all his horses entered for the day.

The talent voted imp. Bones a good thing for the opening race, a dash of four and a half furlongs, and he was made a strong favorite. The plungers backed him to a man. Misery was also in strong demand, and a lot of money was bet on him in the place books.

The favorite won easily. Bon Voyage might have given the favorite a hard race if he had got away well, but a poor send-off killed his chances, and he only secured third place, after closing a lot of ground. Free Press was second.

BENATUR BUTLER'S FIGHT.

He Attacks the Constitutionality of the Late South Carolina Election.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 3.—In the Superme Court this morning Senator M. C. Butier's petition for an injunction retraining the State Treasurer from making payment of salaries to supervisors election registration was heard. Attorneys for the Senator claim that Registration law is unconstitutional, 1 his supposed intention is to have recent general election set aside lilegal and then vitiate the legality to Logislature now sitting and which elect Tillman, his successor, torney-General Buchanan for the took the position that Senator is read a quarter furnament.

RESULTS AT ROBY.

ROBY RACE TRACK, Ind., Dec. 1. To-day's races on this track resulted as follows: First Race-Four and one-half fur-ongs. Won by Shenandoah, 20 to 1 and i to 1; Fauntieroy second, 6 to 1 place; Volunteer third. Time-0.38 1-4. Respite for Doomed Murderers.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dor. 2 .- There was to have been a double hanging here to-day, but shoot 10 o'clock, thirty minutes before the time of the execution, Gov. Turney toleraphed Sheriff Occupied as a Plane Warehouse and by Studies.

utes later, followed soon after by fourth call for fire apparatus. The fire was in the building formerly corner of Fifth avenue and Fifteenth

At present I tis occupied by the Schon niger Piano Company, who use the ground floor of the building as a ware great scramble on the part of the occupants to escape from the building.

In many of the studios there were art works. The fire broke out in the

The occupants of the offices and stu-lios are said to have got out safely. Most of the damage is by smoke water, and will not exceed $5,000.

IS STEAMER KENMORE LOST? May Have Been the Vessel Struck

no-day and Tuesday, stationary temperature, conterty winds. The following record shows the changes in the emperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Petry's pharmacy; A. M., 28/8 a. M., 28/2 M., 48

Republicans in No Hurry.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.-Republicane do yer any tariff legislation at this session. Sema-

EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LET THE EXTRA GRAND JURY GO.

Justice Ingraham Declines to Convene It Until the January Term.

NO CONFIDENCE IN FELLOWS.

He Will Wait Until Flower Appoints the Deputy Attorney-General.

OFFICE TO BE OVERHAULED

Col. Fellows Not to Testify in th Investigation Until All Evibombanell into the practice.

office. He very curtly told to Jury that he would not have as the members at all until be expecial Deputy Attorney-Generator to their notice such matter.

Forty-four gentlemen to the inclosure in front of the and Justice Ingraham began by "I am requested to state to you, net, that this Crand Jury may sit long r than Decemper."

Then there was a pause, durin Justice Ingraham talked privatel or two of the talesmen.

Col. Fellow: and Assistant Distorneys heintyre, Townsend, Lindsay and Hennessey sat in rail. Turning to the talesmen, anot yet been sworn in, Justice Insaid:

A Slap at Fellows.

A Slap at Fellows.

by the Albertine.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—A despatch from Yarmouth announces that a large passenger steamer has been sunk in collision. The steamer Albertine, from Shields, bound to this port, arrived at Yarmouth to-day with her bows completely stove in and leaking badly.

Her commander reported that she was in collision yesterday with a large passenger steamer. The Albertine struck the passenger steamer in the fog, which enveloped that part of the coast all day yesterday.

The Albertine, in spite of her damaged bow, remained about the spot where the collision occurred and searched for the vessel she had collided with. No trace of the steamship lided with. No trace of the steamship and to successful.

A Slap at Fellows.

"Gov. Flower was requested by the Committee of Seventy to appoint a Deput ty Attorney-General to altered upon the matter which are to be laid before them.

"The District-Attorney concurred that request, and I myself wrote to along the hat, without a Deput Attorney-General to prosecute the cases, the investigation and matters have in mind to lay before you cannot successful.

"I shall not lay the matters before you come here on the first Monday in Javary, when we will have with us, assist us in the the investigation ye shall be called upon to make, a Deput the delay with those who are in power and use of the steamship lided with. No trace of the steamship of the delay with those who are in power than a position to put this must off.

A Slap at Fellows.

"Gov. Flower was requested by the committee of Seventy to appoint a Deput to Attorney-General to attend upon the matter to the laid before them.

"The District-Attorney concurred that request, and I myself wrote to Anny to have the appointment made an convinced that, without a Deput attorney-General to prosecute the cases, the investigation and matters have in mind to lay before you cannot successful.

"I shall not lay the matters before you this law with the called upon to make, a Deput the convention of the convention of the convention of the conventi lided with. No trace of the steamship could be found, however, and it is supposed she has foundered.

A life-buoy and four steamer's hatches marked Kenmore were washed ashore near Yarmouth to-day. The steamship Kenmore left Shields on Nov. 18 for Carthagena. Several other collisions and wrecks of small steamers are reported to have occurred during the fog yesterday.

Weather Forecast.

The seater furecal for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. te-morrow is as follows: Fair to-day and Tuesday; stationary temperature, westerly whids.

The following recycl shows the changes in the temperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Ferry's pharmacy; A M. 2818 A M. 2818 M. A. 288 A M. 2818 M. A. 288 A M. 288 A M

Interest in Martine's Chart The rumor that Judge Martine instruct the Grand Jury to retindictment against ex-Assistant D Attorney Hartman had the erowding Part I of the Court o eral Sassions when the Grand J the December term was sworn will be best to allow matters to rest where they are. Let the country renover, he added, "and or will see if any further legislation is wanted."

Coal to Go Up Agains.

The anthracity roat sales agents have adopted the attende in tidewater-prices. Oh a hand of $1.40 at Coloras, against $1.40 on care at Buffale and $1.50 at Chicago last year.

Heary Sulstonatall Dead.

BOSTON. Dec. 3.—Heary Sulstonatall, Treasures of the Pacifo Mills of Lawrence, died to-day at his home. Its Commonwealth avenue.

The best table d'hots dinner is served at the St. James Hotel, B'way & 19th st., $6 to $1.20.